

Staff Attorney Position
With Delaware Riverkeeper Network, a Nonprofit Environmental Organization

Date posted June 30, 2019

The Delaware Riverkeeper Network (DRN) has an immediate opening for a dedicated environmental law attorney in its Bristol, Pennsylvania office. The Attorney will carry their own case load, oversee legal interns, and work with advocacy staff to ensure advocacy work is well positioned for future litigation. The Staff Attorney will be expected to work independently as well as in collaboration with other senior DRN advocacy and legal staff.

DRN works to protect the Delaware River watershed and ecosystems from threats such as shale gas extraction, pipeline and powerline construction, dredging, stormwater runoff, wetlands degradation, species take and pollution. DRN's legal team consists of a senior outside counsel, two full-time staff attorneys, a junior support attorney/paralegal, and a law clinic. The two senior/staff attorneys on staff report to Ms. van Rossum, who is the Delaware Riverkeeper, leader of DRN and also an attorney.

Responsibilities:

- Develop and pursue litigation in state and federal courts and administrative tribunals to advance the organization's strategic objectives.
- Manage relationships with co-counsel, outside counsel, clients, and coalition partners.
- Co-direct the River Resources Environmental Law Clinic each academic semester including providing hands on training to law interns working with DRN for school credit, and providing legal instruction as needed.
- Supervising and mentoring legal interns

Qualifications:

Applicants must be law school graduates who are admitted, or are willing to apply for admission, to at least one of the state bars of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York, or Delaware.

The ideal applicant:

- Must have environmental litigation/law experience working with the Clean Water Act, the National Environmental Policy Act, the Natural Gas Act, the Endangered Species Act, and/or other relevant federal and state environmental statutes.
- Experience/training in administrative and judicial proceedings and experience in undertaking factual investigations.
