

Media Advisory

For Immediate Release: November 27, 2013

Contacts: Tracy Carluccio, Delaware Riverkeeper Network , 215-369-1188x104
Jeff Tittel, NJ Sierra Club, 609-558-9100
Karen Feridun, Berks Gas Truth, 610-678-7726
Doug O'Malley, Environment New Jersey, 917-449-6812
Wes Gillingham, Catskill Mountainkeeper, 845-901-1029
Jim Walsh, Food & Water Watch, 732-979-6883
David Pringle, NJ Environmental Federation, 732-996-4288
Iris Marie Bloom, Protecting Our Waters, (215) 840-6489

Moratorium Supporters Show Appreciation for No Drilling

People to visit Delaware River Basin Commission meeting December 3

WHAT: Delaware River Basin Commission Public (DRBC) Meeting

WHERE: Washington Crossing Historic Park Visitor Center, 1112 River Road,
Washington Crossing, PA; Auditorium

WHEN: 1:30 pm, Tuesday, December 3, 2013

WHY: People from the four states that flow to the Delaware River will attend the DRBC's regular public meeting to commemorate the Commission's moratorium on gas drilling and fracking in the Watershed. In the spirit of the holidays, attendees will share with the Commissioners what they consider to be the Watershed's special attributes that require protection and support.

PHOTO OPPORTUNITIES, families, and presentations by children